

Sanjiv

July 9, 1999

Evaluation of and Recommendations for the Health Information System of Lugufu Refugee Camp, Tanzania

Mission Date: June 20–27, 1999

Paul B. Spiegel MD, MPH
Medical Epidemiologist
International Emergency and Refugee Health Branch
Centers for Disease Control

Table of Contents:		page #
A.	Introduction
	i. dates and personnel	2
	ii. objectives of mission	2
	iii. main persons met	2
	iv. summary of health information system in camps	3
A.	Summary of Key Recommendations	6
B.	Methods	8
C.	Description of Categories and Recommendations
	1. Health Cards	8
	2. OPD Morbidity Form: incident, repeat, disease categories	8
	3. Case Definitions and Treatment Protocols	13
	4. Births and Deaths	14
	5. Maternal Child Health	15
	6. Referrals	17
	7. Malnutrition and Micronutrient Deficiencies	17
	8. Drug Consumption	18
	9. Overall Use of Data Collected	18
	9. A Practical Example of Data Collection and its Usage in the Field	19
A.	Appendices	see attachments
	1. Flowchart of Health Info System
	2. OPD Disease Incidence Tally Sheet
	3. Weekly (and Monthly) Reporting Forms used by TRCS Medical Coordinator
	4. Mortality graphs for Lugufu from Jan-June 1999	