

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION	9
PART ONE CONTEXTUAL AND CONCEPTUAL ISSUES	11
2. CONTEXTUAL ISSUES	13
a) The relief context in the 1990s	13
b) Implications of complex emergencies for relief procedures	14
c) Situations and structural causes of emergency situations	15
d) Structural issues & complex emergencies in the Horn of Africa ..16
3. CONCEPTUAL ISSUES	19
a) A time-line model of emergency situations	19
b) Relief, rehabilitation and development relationships	21
c) Monitoring, evaluation and impact awareness	22
d) Disaster prevention and preparedness	24
PART TWO GUIDING PRINCIPLES	27
4. INSTITUTIONAL AND ORIENTATIONAL PRINCIPLES	29
a) Comparative advantage and the professionalism of partners	29
b) Analytical capacity to assess pre-emergency situations and structural processes	30
c) Situational analysis and problem definition	31
d) Recognition of the need for action	31
e) Relief in a development mode - minimising the emergency period	32
f) Participation and the building or re-building local capacity and institutions	33
g) Coordination of actors and activities	35
5. OPERATIONAL PRINCIPLES	37
a) Early warning and vulnerability assessment	37
b) Needs assessment	38
c) Targeting	38
d) Appropriateness of relief supplied	39
e) Timeliness of interventions	40
f) Flexibility in responses	41
g) Gender and age sensitivity and biases	41
h) Innovation in relief	42
CONCLUSIONS	45
Sources	47