Table of Contents

List of Tables ii
List of Figures ii
Terms used iii
Acknowledgments iv

SUMMARY
Coverage of mine awareness programmes v
Knowledge of mines v
Time trends vi
Type of injury vi
Mine security vi
Mine smart behaviour vi
Reporting of mine incidents vii
Mine committees vii
Endogenous mine smart systemsviii
Recommendations viii

The baseline indicators xii

INTRODUCTION

Background 1
The UNOCHA Mine Action Programme 1
UNOCHA partners 2
The CIET mine smart framework 7
A measured approach to mine awareness 10
Statement of purpose 11

METHODS

The MAE cross-design 11
The sample 12
Process: activities and deliverables 13

RESULTS

The study population 14

Endogenous mine smartness 15

Mine events and social costs 21

Time trends of mine events 21

Child injuries and death 22

The BBC and mine awareness
Coverage 24
Impact 24
Children and the BBC 27

Direct mine awareness training
Coverage 28
Impact 30

Participation 36
Reporting 37
Training of children 39

Programme synergies 41
Household food economy 43

Recommendations 44
Curricular reform 45
Combine direct training and BBC 45
Focus on women 46
Endogenous mine smart systems 48
Mine action tracking & results oriented management 49

Bibliography 51

Technical Annexes 52

List of Tables

The baseline indicators xii

1 UNOCHA partners 6
2 Population and household data 15
3 Physical injuries of mine victims 20
4 Audience and radio use 24
5 Impact of New Home New Life 25
6 Supporting mine smart behaviour 35
7 The effect of training 35
8 Food supply and reserve 43

List of Figures

Map of 96 sites cover page

1 Coverage of mine awareness partners v
2 Time trends in communities vi
3 CIET model of mine smartness 7
4 Demographic structure (MAE 1997) 14
5 Demographic structure (MICS 1996) 14
6 Reasons for going into mined area 17
7 Household activities at risk 17
8 Main thing needed for mine smartness 18
9 Local solutions to mine problems 18
10 Who promotes mine awareness 19
11 Have you heard about mines from 19
12 Who best helps to understand 20
13 Rate of mine incidents 21
14 Time trends in 86 communities 21
15 Mortality and injury from mines 22
16 Urban/rural contributions to trends 22
17 What was s/he doing at the time 23
18 Time trends and the BBC 25
19 Main lessons from the BBC 26
20 Which story do you remember best 26

21	Children: What did you learn	27
22	Coverage of MA partners	28
23	Children who received MA in school	29
24	Wife's source of information	29
25	Time trends in partner communities	30
26	Coverage in mined areas	31
27	Mine security and direct training	33
28	Did not learn anything (region)	34
29	Main lessons in affected areas	34
30	To whom would you report	39
31	% who would not report	39
32	Farmers who go into known fields	41
33	How likely is an accident	42